I can use single dashes correctly.

LessonID: 311

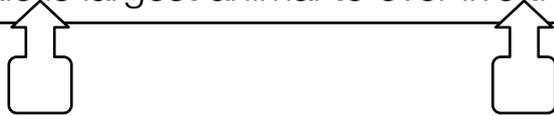

Single dashes work in much the same way as colons; they come after a main clause and they introduce things. However, dashes can't be used to introduce lists. In each sentence below, tick once box to show where the dash should go.

Houseflies have very short lifespans they live for just 14 days

The blue whale is largest animal to ever live they can weigh up to 140 tons.

Complete each of the sentences below using a dash to introduce the explanation. You may need to research a suitable fact, or scan the QR codes to reveal a hidden hint.
