

Name: _____

Date: _____

I can identify descriptive adjectives.

LessonID: 225

It can be tricky to spot some adjectives, especially if the noun they're describing is abstract. Take a look at this example, then fill in the gaps.

The girl let out an excited scream.

The hateful lies upset so many people.

The adjective 'excited' is describing the noun 'scream'

The adjective '.....' is describing the noun '.....'

Ben loved the endless days of summer.

Paul had an unrivalled ability in art.

The adjective '.....' is describing the noun '.....'

The adjective '.....' is describing the noun '.....'

Beth was the third child to be chosen.

The knights had won a bold victory.

The adjective '.....' is describing the noun '.....'

The adjective '.....' is describing the noun '.....'

Circle all the adjectives in the sentences below. It may be helpful to find the nouns first; some of them may be abstract nouns and so might be harder to spot.

It was clear what would happen next; the dreadful actions had finally caught up with the evil robber who had caused such widespread sorrow to the people.

Filled with boundless excitement, Ben put on his party clothes as he prepared to leave home for the end of term party.

Eventually, the menacing clouds parted to reveal a beautiful blue sky; the soldiers were filled with a calming peace that relaxed their battle-worn bodies.