I can identify abstract nouns.

LessonID: 207

Abstract nouns are used to name things that can't be seen, but they still exist. Feelings and emotions are good examples of abstract nouns, but there are others. Circle all the abstract nouns in the sentences below.

- 1 Sally's pride was dented.
- 2 "Give me all your ideas," said the teacher.
- 3 The information was shown on the television.
- 4 Paul was filled with fear and confusion.

Write your own sentence for each abstract noun below. Be careful - make sure you're using the word as a noun. The first has been done for you.

anger

Example: Ben was filled with anger when he realised his team had lost the football match.

trust

jealousy

.....
