

Name: _____

Date: _____

I can identify whether a word is a verb or a noun.

LessonID: 212

When deciding what word class a word is, it's important we consider how the word is being used. This is because the same word can be a noun or a verb, with exactly the same spelling. For each underlined word below, decide whether it's being used as a verb or a noun.

Ben is going for a walk with his dog before tea.

Verb
 Noun

Ben needs to walk the dog before tea.

Verb
 Noun

The children started to blame each other.

Verb
 Noun

The children started to put the blame on each other.

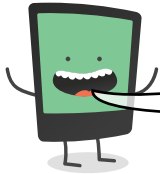

Verb
 Noun

Paul needed some paint for the fence.

Verb
 Noun

Paul started to paint the fence.

Verb
 Noun

For each word below, write a sentence that correctly uses the word as a verb and then as a noun. Remember, nouns name things and verbs describe actions or states.

paddle

As a verb: .....
As a noun: .....

water

As a verb: .....
As a noun: .....

cover

As a verb: .....
As a noun: .....

play

As a verb: .....
As a noun: .....

file

As a verb: .....
As a noun: .....