

Name: _____

Date: _____

I can identify whether a word is a verb or an adjective.

LessonID: 213

When deciding what word class a word is, it's important we consider how the word is being used. This is because the same word can be a verb, or a noun or an adjective, with exactly the same spelling. For each underlined word below, decide how the word is being used.

The visiting team arrived by coach.

- Verb
- Noun
- Adjective

The children were visiting the zoo.

- Verb
- Noun
- Adjective

Noisily, the clock was striking four.

- Verb
- Noun
- Adjective

Ben's striking personality impressed the panel.

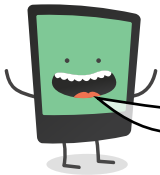

- Verb
- Noun
- Adjective

A crack soon appeared on the wall.

- Verb
- Noun
- Adjective

The wall started to crack as the earth shook.

- Verb
- Noun
- Adjective

For each word below, write a sentence that correctly uses the word as a verb, noun or adjective. Remember, nouns name things, verbs describe actions or states and adjectives describe nouns.

boiling

As a verb:

As an adjective:

display

As a verb:

As a noun:

flying

As a verb:

As an adjective:

flood

As a verb:

As a noun: