

Name: _____

Date: _____

I can turn adjectives into adverbs.

LessonID: 236

Adjectives modify (or change) nouns and adverbs modify adjectives, verbs and adverbs. It is possible to change adjectives into adverbs. Generally speaking, this is done by adding '-ly'. Take a look at the example.

Nervous as an adjective

The nervous boy jumped into the pool.

Nervously as an adverb

Nervously the boy jumped into the pool.

Rewrite each of these sentences, changing the circled adjective into an adverb. Experiment with the position of the adverb too.

Ben was careful when using the scissors.

.....
.....

The dangerous animal approached the car.

.....
.....

The courageous officer arrested the robber.

.....
.....

In the following sentences, the incorrect adverbs have been used. Correct each sentence using the correct adverb

The car drove fastly.

The car drove

The boy hardly worked.

The boy worked

Ben always plays good.

Ben always plays

The birds flew highly in the sky.

The birds flew in the sky.

The plane flew lowly over the houses.

The plane flew over the houses.