I can use adverbs of time and place.

LessonID: 237

Adverbs of time tell us when or how often an action takes place. They can be tricky to spot, so it's usually easier to find the verb first and then to find the adverb that modifies the verb. Take a look at the example below, then underline the verbs and circle the adverbs in the sentences that follow.

eg. We arrived late but it didn't matter.

I'm going to leave tonight.

Normally the children have a hot lunch.

You need to do your homework later.

Ben never eats his vegetables.

The singer rarely performed his hits.

Sally regularly plays football.

Soon we will see our friends.

Adverbs of place tell us where an action takes place. Just as with other adverbs, it's usually easier to find the verb first. Look at the example below, then underline the verbs and circle the adverbs in the sentences that follow.

eg. We searched everywhere!

I parked my car nearby.

The wasp flew around .

The kite soared upwards.

Paul was running outside.

I am going to live abroad.

Ben pushed the plug in.

Let's go back to the shops.

Complete this sentence adding both an adverb of time and an adverb of place:

We arrived so
