I understand what a passive sentence is.

LessonID: 276

In passive sentences - also known as the passive voice - the subject is not the agent (it's not doing the verb). The verb will also include a form of the verb 'to be'. Very often (but not always), passive sentences include the word 'by'. Fill in the spaces in the table below for each of these passive sentences.

	Verb (with 'to be' verb)	Agent (if known)	Subject	'by' word included?
The ball was thrown by Sally.
Mice are eaten by cats.
The rubbish was placed in the bin.
Your money will be collected on Thursday.

Tick one box in each row to show whether the sentence is written in the active voice or the passive voice.
